summary: WHAT A SHOW!

The new 2025/2026 theater season at Teatro nelle Valli Bormida

Teatro nelle Valli Bormida is a theater season created in collaboration with the Fondazione Piemonte dal Vivo as part of the Corto Circuito project, with the Municipality of Spigno Monferrato (AL), the Municipality of Monastero Bormida (AT), the Municipality of Cortemilia (CN), and with the support of Cassa di Risparmio di Asti.

description: The new 2025/2026 season kicks off with the title "What a Show!": this important recognition, along with the launch of a new three-year program supported by Piemonte dal Vivo, confirms the quality of the work accomplished in Piedmont's inland areas in recent years.

This expansion certainly entails increased organizational commitment, but also opens up new collaborations and opportunities for regional development. Leading the project, once again, is a motivated team that has chosen to focus on the diversity of artistic expressions (prose, dance, music, comedy, and civic theater), the involvement of local communities, and cultural risk as a driver of growth and dialogue with the public.

Among the names on the bill: Andrea Bosca, Corrado Tedeschi, Claudia Marsicano, Serena Balivo, Gian Luigi Carlone (founder of Banda Osiris), along with other prominent guests from the Italian theater scene.
